ELISABETTA FRANCHI

A sweet and sparkling Christmas for the Elisabetta Franchi brand

This Christmas, Elisabetta Franchi launches a limited-edition shoe to celebrate the holidays in sparkling style.

The model, a peep-toe décolleté with all-glitter gold upper adorned with a grosgrain and rhinestone detail, has dizzyingly high heels and a plateau in light dusty pink suede, emblematic colour of the fashion house. For the occasion, the designer has also created a special Christmas package, a bright white box with logo and border in gold, with the shoes tied in a white satin ribbon. And as an accompaniment, a small box of artisanal chocolate pralines personalized with the Elisabetta Franchi logo written with icing.

For a sweet & chic Christmas!

Sure to lend a unique and sophisticated look, the Elisabetta Franchi décolletés will be in Elisabetta Franchi boutiques in Italy and in the recently inaugurated Paris store. The shoes may also be purchased online from the digital shop of the maison.

Glitter shoes, glitter party!
